WE think our people made a mistake in having the charter of incor- dues. poration of the town of Rogersville repealed. The streets are going to the bad. Drunken men and worthless boys are prowling around loose, doing all the devilment they can invent. The upper part of the court house is being converted into a gambling hell, the lower halls smell bad and the glass is being broken out of the windows by drunken men and bad boys. When sensible men make a mistake they ought to be in a hurry to correct it.
